

Together.

A night out with friends?

- Forget the Batmobile – if you're getting a cab, make sure it's licensed.
- If you do walk home after a night out, do so in a group and stick to well-lit streets.
- Plan ahead and let friends know where you're going.
- Carry valuables, such as your phone, in an inside pocket or secure bag.
- Don't flash your cash.

Nottingham is a friendly city and our campuses are safe places but being aware of your surroundings and having a commonsense attitude towards personal safety will help you enjoy your time here even more.

You go together.
Come back together.
